FROM THE PASTOR July 21, 2019 Reflect the glory of God

Christie Kerr of the School of Psychology, University of Glasgow, and Rob Jenkins of the Department of Psychology at the University of New York worked together to study the usefulness of capturing images reflected in the pupils of one's eye. They found that "the incredible level of detail in modern digital photographs were able to pick out the tiny reflections of faces hidden in the eyes of the subject."

"The pupil of the eye is like a black mirror," said Jenkins. He and Kerr "recovered the images of bystanders that were as small as 27 pixels across ... Yet when presented to panelists in a face-matching task, observers were able to match the diminutive faces 71 percent of the time. When the faces were familiar ones, people recognized identity correctly 84 percent of the time."

The implications for the usefulness of recovering such images are varied, including criminal investigation. "The researchers say that in crimes in which the victims are photographed, such as hostage taking or child sex abuse, reflections in the eyes of the photographic subject could help to identify perpetrators."

APPLICATION

Such research brings to mind the old nursery song, "Oh be careful little eyes what you see." In a very literal sense, our eyes reflect what they take in.

What do others see when they search your eyes for evidence of where and with whom you've been? If a reflection can reveal a perpetrator, it can also reveal a Deliverer.

Reflect the glory of God by focusing your gaze on the grace and love revealed in the person of Christ.

"But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit" (2 Corinthians 3:18, NASB).

To God Be the Glory,
 Pastor Jack

They Beheld His Glory

John 1:14-18

INTRODUCTION

1. In the prologue to his gospel, John identifies the Word...
 - a. Who was in the beginning with God, and was God - John 1:1-2
 - b. Through whom all things were made - John 1:3
 - c. Who was life, and the light of men - John 1:4-5,9
 - d. Who came into the world, though many did not receive Him - John 1:10-11
 - e. Yet those who received Him, become children of God - John 1:12-13
2. The Word was Jesus Christ...
 - a. Who became flesh and lived among men - John 1:14
 - b. Whose glory was seen by men - John 1:14
3. The word "glory" as used here...
 - a. Means "majesty, dignity, splendor"
 - b. Pertaining to Christ, it refers to His personal excellence and majesty

John writes "We beheld His glory". What majesty, dignity, or splendor did John and others see in Jesus when He walked in the flesh among men...?

I. THEY BEHELD HIS GLORY

A. THE GLORY OF HIS DEITY...

1. "the glory as of the only begotten of the Father" - John 1:14a
2. "The dignity which was appropriate to the only begotten Son of God"

B. THE GLORY OF HIS GRACE...

1. "full of grace...grace for grace...grace and truth came through Jesus" - John 1:14b,16-17
2. "The word grace means favors, gifts, acts of beneficence."

C. THE GLORY OF HIS TRUTH...

1. "full...of truth...truth came through Jesus Christ." - John 1:14b,17
2. "He was also full of truth. He declared the truth. In him was no falsehood."
3. "He represented things as they are, and thus became the truth as well as the way and the life." - cf. John 14:6

D. THE GLORY OF HIS PREMINENCE...

1. "He who comes after me is preferred before me..." - John 1:15
2. As witnessed to by John the Baptist - cf. John 1:27,29-30
3. John the Baptist recognized His superiority, as did the apostle Paul

E. THE GLORY OF HIS REVELATION...

1. "No one has seen God at any time. The only begotten Son...He has declared Him" - John 1:18
2. Jesus manifested or declared the Father as no one had done before!
3. "This verse proves that, Jesus had a knowledge of God above that which any of the ancient prophets had, and that the fullest revelations of his character are to be expected in the gospel."

By the grace of God, it also possible that...

II. WE CAN BEHOLD HIS GLORY

A. IN THIS LIFE...

1. We behold the glory of His deity, grace, truth, preeminence and revelation!
2. How? Through the words of His eyewitnesses!
3. Indeed, we must behold His glory to be transformed!

B. WHEN HE COMES AGAIN...

1. We will behold His glory when He appears - Colossians 3:4
2. Indeed, everyone will behold His glory...For every eye will see Him - Revelation 1:7;
 For every knee will bow, and every tongue confess Him - Philippians 2:9-11
